Grace church, Alexandria, came near being destroyed by fire last week. New furnaces were placed in the church, which were not properly guarded; and last week, as the ladies were attending their usual missionary meeting, the room became filled with smoke. Friends came in from the street, water was poured upon the flames, which were spreading under the floor, and soon the fire was extinguished. Fifteen minutes more and the church would have been destroyed. MORAL: Appoint somebody at once to examine the furnaces of your OFFICE NO. 1227 PENN'A. AVENUE, church.-Southern Churchman.
